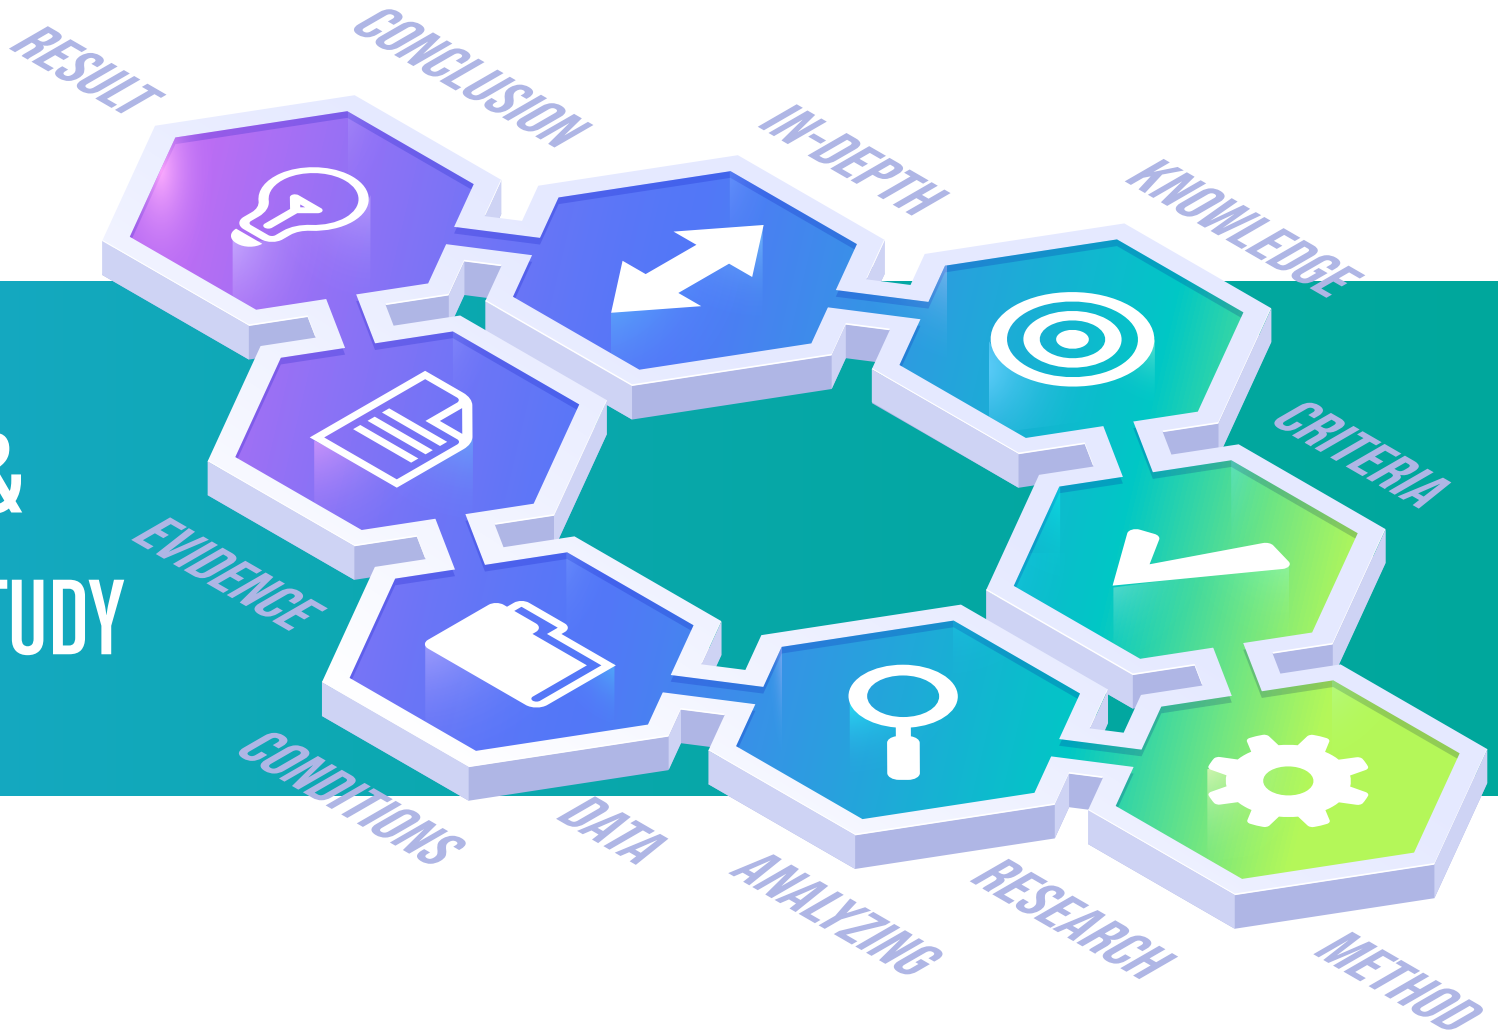
OUR PORTFOLIO & PROJECT CASE STUDY



BE FOODIE Online food ordering & delivery App

Branding & Identity, UI / UX, App, Admin Pannel

Opportunity & Case Study

The online food delivery business is one of the fastest growing online businesses in the current world. The popularity of this is continuously increasing. The modern trend of food delivery service is through food ordering apps. Everyone can agree that food delivering services is an investment that is worth it in the long run, especially with the growing trend of ordering and receiving food from restaurants.

The Result

We worked with Befoodie Team. We developed their whole system. Across the entire process of this food delivery business, we need to build three applications. User App for end users, vendor App for food providers and delivery App for delivering the food. We followed this through clean and modern application design, brand collateral, user interface design, and world-class user experience. We have created an admin panel which can maintain the whole process.

Tools Used

Kotlin and Swift (Upon request we can provide in flutter), Django

Branding & Identity, UI / UX, App, Admin Pannel

Opportunity & Case Study

My Pasar Borong is one of the leading grocery shopping and delivery marketplace in Malaysia. To keep pace with their growing business age, there was a great need for an online platform that could efficiently deliver their services to the customers. In addition, they also need a branding strategy to inform customers about this new type of services and make their business known to the public.

The Result

Our skilled team has created an app-based on-demand grocery delivery platform for them. We delivered them a solution where the combination of 3 apps has made their entire delivery system digitalization. We provided them a user-friendly UI UX solution for this. We also provided their brand guidelines to enhance their business identity. Also, provide all types of graphical elements for conducting digital marketing like media banners, Marketing flyers, and App promotion brochures.
